

WHITE WINES

OSADO MALBEC BLANCO, DRY (ARGENTINA, MENDOZA)

Wine that is white in color but made from the red Malbec grape variety, making it a true rarity among Malbec wines. This unique wine is produced at Osado Wines using a method known as "claret." The grapes are pressed in such a way that the skins do not come into contact with the juice, preventing any discoloration. A fresh aroma of red currants and strawberries with a subtle hint of white flowers. An elegant, fresh white wine with a fuller body and texture derived from the Malbec grape, and a longer finish.
